

Access Family Services, a Pathways company, is looking for you, if you enjoy the entrepreneurial thrill of invention and enjoy working as a team to create a satisfying outcome for our consumers!

Behavior Analysts and a Senior Behavior Analysts are needed for various North Carolina locations.

Immediate Interviews:

Senior Behavior Analyst (Charlotte, Hickory, and Asheville, NC)

The Senior Behavior Analyst is responsible for coordinating treatment and implementing outreach services for assigned clients as a member of the Autism Services Program. As a Senior Behavior Analyst, you will receive ongoing training and professional development opportunities after hiring and you need to be highly organized with solid time management skills as well as adaptable to a fast-paced work environment. The Senior Behavior Analyst provides administrative and clinical oversight and supervision to all team members including BCBA's and ABA Technicians as well as provides professional and clinical development/training of team members. The Senior Behavior Analyst also serves as a leader, to ensure effective treatment for all clients. Master's or Doctoral degree in Behavioral Analysis, Special Education, or another Human Services Discipline with an emphasis in Behavioral Analysis; and BCBA or BCBA-D Certification from the Behavior Analyst Certification Board Inc., or state issued license to practice Applied Behavior Analysis required. LP, LPA, LCMHC, LCSW preferred; and must meet all requirements set forth by the BACB for supervisors. 3 – 5 years of experience post certification providing behavioral services to children, adolescents or adults on the autism spectrum and/or with intellectual disabilities. Experience providing training, supervision and oversight to Registered Behavior Technicians (RBTs). Supervisory experience preferred.

Behavior Analyst (Asheville, Charlotte, New Bern, and Raleigh, NC)

Responsible for coordinating treatment and implementing outreach services for assigned clients as a member of the Autism Services Program. As a Behavior Analyst, you will receive ongoing training and professional development opportunities after hiring and you need to be highly organized with solid time management skills as well as adaptable to a fast-paced work environment. Master's or Doctoral degree in Behavioral Analysis, Special Education or another Human Services Discipline with an emphasis in Behavioral Analysis; and Certification from the Behavior Analyst Certification Board Inc. Candidate must have experience working with children, especially those with autism or other developmental disabilities. Candidate must have experience assessing, writing, and implementing effective behavior intervention plans as well as experience providing training, supervision and oversight to Registered Behavior Technicians (RBTs).

Interested candidates apply via website link:

<https://access-family-services.careerplug.com/jobs?locale=en-US>.

Equal Opportunity Employer

Contact: Dwindia Franks MBA, PHR/SHRM-CP at dwindia.franks@accessfamilyservices.com